INCIDENT INVESTIGATION POLICY

Quick N Quality Oilfield requires all unplanned events that result in injury or property damage (over $1000) or incidents that have the potential for injury or property damage to be reported and investigated without delay. The purpose of the investigation is to determine the root causes of the incident and to implement necessary changes to prevent recurrence.

Employees must report all accidents, incidents, near misses, potentially serious incident (PSI) and injuries to their Supervisors immediately. Supervisors/Safety Advisor(s) are responsible for reporting high risk accidents, incidents, near misses and injuries to Quick N Quality Oilfield management, and conducting investigations in an expedient and professional manner.

Through effective investigation of high risk incidents Quick N Quality Oilfield will be able to maintain its proactive approach to safety management.
